NORFOLK LICKED

Portsmouth, Va., May 28.—In a game filled with hard hitting and sensational fielding, the Norfolk All Stars took a severe trouncing at the hands of the Portsmouth Giants here last week. Wickware, a star pitcher of last season, was forced to retire in the third inning after the Giants laid a barrage of hits. Gatewood of St. Louis Giants fame was also met with a heavy onslaught, but finished the game. Smith pitched a steady game for the Giants and was never in danger. The final score was: Portsmouth Giants, 5; Norfolk All Stars, 3.

The Washington Cubs, Washington, D. C., lost a three game series here last week. The scores were as follows: First game, Portsmouth 11, Washington 6; second game, 15 to 3; third game, 9 to 3.
