

Chicago Giants at Detroit

Joe Green's Chicago Giants go to Detroit and will open there Saturday, May 29, playing Sunday and Decoration day, also Tuesday and Wednesday. Green has finally added a couple of new pitchers, also a shortstop, who is said to be a real comer. The new find is a Chicago lad and he is a graduate of the prairies and high school baseball teams of the Windy city. Anderson is the lad's name and of those who have seen him work the best judges pronounce him a comer. Another player on the Giants that is attracting attention is White, the big soldier first baseman; this fellow is a clouter of the clean-up variety and the players who saw him work many oversea games, all pronounce him to be one of the most dangerous hitters in the game. The Detroit fans are in for some real battling when Green trots his revised line-up out to toe the scratch.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, May 29, 1920, Page 9, Column 5