

STARS STOW IT AWAY IN FIRST

SCORE ALL THEIR RUNS IN THE OPENING INNING AGAINST MAGNETS

Detroit, Mich., May '28.—Detroit Stars came back strong in their second game against the Chicago Magnets at Mack park Sunday afternoon and evened the series by winning, 5 to 0.

Holland, the local's star hurler, was invincible, striking out seven batters and allowing four hits.

Detroit counted all of its five runs in the opening inning. Petway walked and Lyons singled to center field and on Jamieson's error he advanced to second, Petway taking third. Wesley, the third man up, walked, loading the corners. Hill struck out, but Eggleston doubled, clearing the bases. Longware also clouted a two-base hit, scoring Eggleston. Riggins hit a liner to Shortstop McKittrick, whose wild peg to first base allowed the fifth and last score.

From the first inning the game was a pitchers' duel between Holland and Conlon.

Chicago	..0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0—0
Detroit	..5	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	*—5

Runs—Petway, Lyons, Wesley, Eggleston, Longware. Errors—McKittrick, Jamieson, Faul, Wesley (2). Two-base hits—Jamieson, Warfield, Eggleston, Longware. Balk—Holland. Struck out—By Conlon, 7; by Holland, 7.

Detroit Stars lost to the Chicago Magnets in the first game of the series at Mack park Saturday afternoon, 7 to 5. Corey of the visitors and Thompson of the locals were hit freely, although the former had the better of the argument.

Chicago Defender, Chicago, IL

Saturday, May 29, 1920, Page 9, Column 7