

FOSTER'S MEN LOSE FINAL

Schorling's Park, Sunday Afternoon.

The final curtain was rung-down on local baseball this afternoon, when the American Giants bowed to the powerful curves of Jack Quinn, star pitcher of the New York American League team. The big leaguer was almost invincible, fanning twelve of the Giants and allowing four scattered hits. The Normals presented a strong line-up, with Daubert at short. The Giants got two runs in the sixth inning by taking advantage of the visitors' fielding. The score:
