

HILDALE EASY VICTORS

Trenton, N. J., Sept. 24.—"Pod" Flournoy held the Bash team, winners of the first half of the Delaware River league championship, to no runs and one hit on the De Loval grounds this afternoon. Hildale taking the contest, 6 to 0. The game was a benefit for William Matthews, a former big league pitcher, at one time with the Boston Nationals, who was injured this season while pitching for the Bash team.
