

HILDALE LOSES TO. AMERICAN ALL-STARS

Manager Holden and his Hilldale team tackled the "All Stars" of the American League, yesterday afternoon, at the Philadelphia National League grounds, and gave the big leaguers a fitting battle, losing 2 to 1. The "All Stars" were recruited largely from "Connie" Mack's Athletics, with "Pep" Young, of the Detroit Tigers, at the pivot sack. Harris, Keefe and Naylor divided up the mound duty, each going three innings for the "All Stars."

Cockersill, pitching for Hilldale, worked great, but his defeat can be charged to the work of Brown around the second sack, whose two miscues were most disastrous.
