
HILDALE GETTING READY FOR BIG BASEBALL YEAR

Hildale is making big preparations to make 1920 a big baseball one, at Hildale Park. Hildale was organized in 1910, and incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania in 1916. In the last five years they have loomed up as the biggest colored club in Philadelphia. This year big Bill Whitworth, formerly star pitcher for Kabe Foster's American Giants, has signed with Hildale.

Francis, Jesse Barber and Charleston are also leaving Chicago and will be seen in Hildale uniforms after April 15. The Hildale schedule this year will only permit them to travel on Sundays, Mondays and Tuesdays.

The lineup: Allen, first base; Downs, second base; Lundy, shortstop; Francis, third base; Barber, right field; Roberts, right field; Johnson, centre field; Charleston, left field; Yank, catcher; Whitworth, Cockrel, Flourney and stark, pitchers.

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Sunday Morning, January 25, 1920, Page 21, Column 8