

ROYAL GIANTS SHUT OUT, HILDALE WINS IN TENTH

Phil Cockerell turned the trick for Hilldale yesterday afternoon at Darby when he scored in the tenth inning with the only run of the contest between the Brooklyn Royal Giants and the locals.

Cockerell had been primed for just this occasion and the confidence placed in him by Manager Bolden was rewarded, not so much by his teammates, but by that individual himself, for he not only pitched a wonderful game, but his elasticity on the bases brought the result for which he had been selected.
