

Hildale Shares Bill With Newark Nine

Special to The Inquirer.

NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 5 — The Hildale team, of Darby, Pa., divided the twin bill with the Marshall-Ball aggregation, on the Fourteenth street and South Orange grounds here this afternoon. The Pennsylvanians being the winner, 5-1, and then coming back in the aftermath with 9-4 score in their favor. The first game was lost through the many misplays made by the Hildale, the official scorer checking six errors against the visitors. They also fielded miserably in the second game, but their hitting was more deadly inasmuch as they made their hits count in the run getting. Cokerell pitched a whale of a game in the aftermath, allowing the locals six hits.

x - Batted for Downs in ninth inning.
