

MERCHANTS' SHIP LOSES ONE TO HILDALE, 8 TO 2

The Merchants' Ship got into troubled waters yesterday afternoon when anchor was cast at Darby, and Manager Bolden's Hilldale team was engaged. After the first inning, in which the visitors recorded two bull's-eyes, Hilldale's defense was not even dented, while Belden had his gunners scoring most effectively throughout the long-drawn-out conflict. The score board reading after nine rounds:

Merchants' Ship, 2; Hilldale, 8.
Merchants' Ship.	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2
Hilldale	1	0	2	0	0	1	1	0	0	8

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Friday Morning, July 23, 1920, Page 20ab, Column 5