

HILLDALE RUNS WILD AGAINST STETSON TEAM

Phil Cockerell, pitching for Hilldale against Stetson A. A. on the latter's grounds, yesterday afternoon, stood the batsmen on their heads, while his team-mates executed two of their finest left-hand twirlers, the score being 14 to 0.

HILLDALE.					STETSON.
	r.	h.	e.	a.		r.	h.	e.	a.
Barber, 2b.	2	2	0	1	0	Moffet, ss.	0	1	4	1
Downs, ss.	2	2	2	1	0	Hamil'n., lf.	0	0	0	0
Allen, 1b.	2	2	1	0	1	Mattie, cf.	0	0	0	1
Santon, c.	2	3	7	0	0	Stetson, c.	0	0	4	2
Johnson, cf.	1	0	1	0	0	Fritz, 3b.	0	0	1	3
Francis, 3b.	1	2	0	1	0	Rosby, 1b.	0	0	0	0
Roberts, lf.	2	1	0	0	0	Boney, rf.	0	0	1	0
Cockerell, p.	1	2	0	2	0	Herr, 2b.	0	0	1	1
Whit'h, rf.	1	2	0	0	0	Sterling, p.	0	0	0	1
						David, p.	0	1	0	2

Totals....14 16 21 5 2      Totals... 0 2 21 10 2

Game called in seventh inning, darkness.

Hilldale	3	8	0	0	0	2	1	14
Stetson	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Wednesday Morning, June 9, 1920, Page 22ab, Column 7