

DISPUTE ENDED GAME

Smith Team and Hilldale Row Over Decision in Eighth Inning

The Marshall K. Smith & Brother-Hilldale game at Camden Tuesday ended in a dispute in the eighth inning. With the score 5-3 in favor of the Smith boys, Downs batted on his third strike and was called out by Empire Griffith, as the ball went foul. Kite, holding the ball, made no effort to get Downs. Empire Griffith then reversed his decision, claiming the ball was picked up on the foul line, calling Downs safe at first. The Smith team refused to abide by this decision and left the field.
