

NATIVITY TO OPEN SERIES WITH HILDALE

Locals Clash on Grounds of Former Team This Afternoon

The first game in the series between the Nativity team and Hilldale for the baseball championship of Philadelphia will be played this afternoon on the grounds of the former at Miller and Ontario streets. Manager Phil Haggerty has decided that he will use either Hockenbury or Eddie Gerner in the box while either Flourney or Cockrell will hurl for the visitors.

These clubs have met on six previous occasions this year and three games have been won by each. The second contest will be played tomorrow on the grounds of the Hilldale team at Fifth and Main streets in Darby and the third game will be announced later.
