

MEN WITH WHISKERS LOSE BALL GAME

House of David Beaten by Bacharach Giants Before
Big Crowd of Fans

The Bacharach Giants of Atlantic City defeated the House of David team of Benton Harbor, Mich., in a exhibition game by 4 to 2 at Shibe Park. Old-time fans who were in the assemblage were reminded of the days back in the 70s when the original Athletics were wont to play with chin whiskers and flowing locks. The House of David players appeared on the field wearing various lengths of whiskers and all had long hair.

Despite their uncouth appearance they played good ball and the Bacharach's had to stop some to win the game. All the Davids wore chin adornment with the exception of the battery. Brogan and Phelan. This pair was as hairless as proverbial billiard ball and it was said that they were hired for the occasion as the David's best pitcher. Mooney, was unable to toss them owing to a lame arm.
