

Bridesburg Battle Bacharach To a Tie

The greatest pitching duel ever witnessed by the fans of the Northeast took place yesterday afternoon at Richmond and Orthodox streets when Volz, pitching for Bridesburg, and Williams pitching for the Bacharach Giants looked up in a ten-inning duel, neither side being able to score, the game being called at the end of the tenth on account of darkness.

BRIDESBURG					BACHARACH
	r.	b.	o.	a. e.		r.	b.	o.	a. e.
Weidman, lf.	0	2	1	0 0	Pugh, rf.	0	0	1	0 0
P. Diamond, 3b	0	0	0	1 0	Shively, cf.	0	1	5	0 0
Pickup, rf.	0	0	1	0 0	Marcell, 3b	0	0	0	1 0
W. Butts, cf.	0	1	3	0 0	Brown, lf.	0	2	1	0 0
Fish, c.	0	0	2	1 0	Lundy, ss.	0	1	3	4 0
R. Butts, 1b.	0	0	1	3 1	Handy, 2b.	0	1	2	8 1
Hayes, 2b.	0	0	0	4 1	Pierce, 1b.	0	0	1	5 0 0
Fairburn, ss.	0	0	1	5 0	Rajo, c.	0	1	3	0 0
Volz, p.	0	1	3	7 0	Will's, p.	0	0	0	2 0
Totals	0	4	30	17 1	Totals	0	8	20	15 1
Bridesburg	0	0	0	0 0	Bacharach	0	0	0	0 0
Bacharach	0	0	0	0 0	Bridesburg	0	0	0	0 0

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Friday Morning, September 24, 1920, Page 18, Column 3