

Giants at Dyckman Oval To-day and To-morrow

Those fans who plugged for the Giants to win the National League pennant and were then disappointed because the National Leaguer's could not play a post-season series with the Yankees, will have another opportunity of watching their favorites in action when the regular Giant team is thrown against the Lincoln Giants and Jeff Tesreau's Bears, at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman Street subway station this afternoon and to-morrow.

To-day the Giants will play one game, and on Sunday two against the Bears. Pol Perritt and Jess Barnes will do the twirling for the Giants and Frank Snyder will do the catching. Big George Kelly and Larry Doyle and Davy Bancroft will be in the infield line-up, with Young, Spencer and Burns going duty in the outfield.
