

Bacharach Giants Play

Jeff's Bears To-morrow

Dyckman Oval, scene of many a semi-pro baseball game this year, will close its gates for the season to-morrow afternoon after the Bacharach Giants clash with Jeff Tesrent's Bears in a double-header. The season at Dyckman Oval has been a profitable one, demon strating that not only did the fans want their major league baseball, but they were equally desirous of seeing good semi-pro games.

The Bears and Bacharach have played four games this season and each has won two. The Bacharachs will have their star twirler, Cannon Ball Dick Redding, to oppose Fullerton, of no-hit fame, in the first game. It was Fullerton who shut out the Bacharachs two months ago.

New York Tribune, New York, NY

Saturday, November 6, 1920, Page 11, Column 2