

Bacharachs and Lincoln Giants Battle Sunday

The Bacharach Giants, of Atlantic City, and the Lincoln Giants will meet in a series of games, the first of which will be played next Sunday at Ebbets Field. For more than four years an effort has been made to get these teams together, but without avail.

With Ebbets Field open next Sunday, negotiations were started a week ago to arrange a double-header between the Bacharachs and Lincolns, and it took hours of persuasion to induce the managers to agree to play.

New York Tribune, New York, NY

Wednesday, July 7, 1920, Page 14, Column 1