

Yanigans And Black Sox Play Double Bill Today

The Baltimore Yanigans, with Ed Rommell, of the Athletics; "Chalky" McCleary, of the Blue Ridge League, and Baier, of the Virginia League, as pitchers, will tackle the Black Sox, colored champions of Maryland, in a double-header this afternoon, at Oriole Park. The Black Sox have not lost a series to a local club in two seasons.

The line-up of the Baltimore Yanigans will be as follows: Bates, c.f.; Baier, 2b; Drury, 1b; McNeil, c; Citrano, 3b; Mallonee, 1f.; Suter, ss.; Ward, r.f.; McCleary and Rommell, p.

This is probably the best team the Black Sox have been called upon to face this year and their winning streak may be broken.
