

Giants Coming Back for Tilts; League Planned

The New York Lincoln Giants are to play two games here this week-end.

The fast colored stars are to clash with San Diego at the stadium Sunday morning and afternoon.

The morning game is scheduled for 10:15 o'clock.

These coming combats will mark the opening of the new Winter league, of which San Diego is to be one of the six clubs comprising the circuit.

Will Palmer president of the home club, and Tom Downey, manager, departed today for Los Angeles, where he will attend a meeting which will formulate all plans for the organization.

The clubs which will be included in the wheel are:

San Diego, managed by Tom Downey.

The Alexander Giants, colored.

The New York Lincoln Giants.

San Pedro, managed by Carl Sawyer.

Dyas, managed by Bill Goodman.
Universal City, managed by Sam
Agnew.

Two games are to be played each week and the schedule is proposed to include all Saturdays and Sundays through Washington's birthday.
