

NATIVITY SCHEDULES TEN GAMES IN ROW

Manager Phil Haggerty Ar- ranges Half Score Contests With Leading Teams

The Nativity Catholic Club will start an ambitious schedule this evening at Ontario and Miller streets when the club plays Logan A. A. in a twilight contest. The Richmond aggregation will then play nine more games making ten in a row, a schedule not equaled by any other semi-pro club.

On Saturday the team plays Cheltenham and on Sunday Audubon. Monday they journey to Norristown and face Sheer's professionals. Tuesday will find them back in Richmond with the Cuban Stars as the attraction. They play Bacharach at the seashore on Wednesday, and Thursday and Friday, July 23 the Sparrows Point club will be here. The Saturday attraction will then be Reach and Norfolk Stars on Sunday making ten games in a row.

Evening Public Ledger, Philadelphia, PA

Friday, July 16, 1920, Page 10, Column 3