

MONUMENT LOT STAGES MANY BASEBALL GAMES

More than twenty games of baseball were staged yesterday on the various diamonds around the Washington Monument, and Sunday's throngs, eager to get a last look at the Japanese cherry trees, watched with intent the many contests. Other fields in and near the city were occupied all day.

From early morning until the groundkeepers started taking the bases into the clubhouse on the Monument Lot, the teams, were at it.

Here are some of the scores registered yesterday on various fields:

Westovers, 5; Zone Five, 1.

U Street Stars, 7; Bloomingdale, 5.

N Street Stars, 10; Trinity Juniors, 9.

Herzl, 15; Rialto, 5.

Highland A. C., 2; Congress Heights, 1.

Silver Spring, 10; Winstons, 3.

Clarendon, 7; Gibralters, 2.

Dreadnaughts, 15; Eagle A. C., 0.

Norfolk All-Stars, 10; Asbury
Browns, 1.
Aztecs, 4; Terminals, 1.
Cubs, 8; Blandesburg, 0.
Clover A. C. 9; Mohawk Juniors, 7.
Cardinals, 20; Naval Hospital, 5.

Washington Times, Washington, DC

Monday, April 19, 1920, Page 14, Column 3