

NORFOLK ALL-STARS MEET ASBURY BROWNS

Local fans will be given a chance this afternoon to witness a good game when the Norfolk All-Stars battle the Asbury Browns in Union League Park at 3 p. m. The Norfolk Stars are ranked as one of the fastest colored aggregations in the country, as last season they were just nosed out for the championship in a nine-game series with the Baccarac Giants of Atlantic City. They successfully defeated such well-known clubs as the Cuban Giants, Royal Giants and Bronx Giants in series of games. The Asbury Giants won the local colored championship last season and are confident of giving the visiting professional outfit a battle for laurels. Manager "Chappy" Johnston of the Virginians claims his club is the highest-salaried colored team on the road, and believes the local fans will be pleased with the make-up of his club when they give them the once-over.
