

BLACK PANTHERS ALSO ARE PENNANT WINNERS

The Fort Worth Black Panthers closed the season in the Negro Texas League Monday, defeating the Dallas Black Giants in the final game, 2 to 1, and winning the flag by a single game.

"Steel Arm" Johnnie Harris took the mound for the locals and held the Black Giants well in hand throughout the struggle.

The past season has been the most successful ever known in the Black circuit, and officials of the clubs are expecting next year to be even brighter, according to Hiram McGar, owner of the Black Panthers.
