

Chicago, July 7.—The Kansas City Monarchs were defeated today by the Chicago American Glants in a 12-inning game, 2 to 1. Currie pitched for the Monarchs. In the twelfth inning when he walked the first man, a hit by Demoss and Torrentia's sacrifice fly won the game. Marshall was hit hard, but wonderful fielding by the Chicago club saved the game several times. Torrentia, the Cuban outfielder for Chicago, and Moore, the Monarch's new shortstop, both starred at bat and in the field.
