

FOOD FOR FANS.

By Chas. A. Starks.

The Monarchs continue to satisfy the optimistic demands and hopes of the local fans here in Kansas City. After leaving Detroit with highest honors they went to do battle with the ever formidable alphabetical nine—the A. B. C's.

Batteries—Crawford and Ray functioned for the Monarchs, while Williams, Johnson and Mackey worked for the A. B. C's.

Sunday's Games—First Game.

There were about 7,000 fans watching the first of a pair of struggles between the two fast teams. The manager of the A. B. C's put in a new mound acquisition, hailing from Texas. The southern gent got down to business after the first round and the heavy hitting Monarchs failed to land on the ball by way of hits and scores. Mackey, the local's back stop started in several feature plays. The A. B. C.s cinched the game in the first round when they piled up a quartet of runs. They also scored one in the second and one in the fifth.

The score by innings:

Monarchs	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—2
A. B. C.s	4	1	0	0	1	0	0	0	x	—6

Batteries—Donaldson, Rogan and Rodriquez; McClure-Mackey.

Second Game.

In the second game things went so oposite. Currie hurled for the Monarchs, and except for the third round the locals could not make out what he was, whether he was a cyclone or some strange wary performer that defeated all their attempts at solving the riddle. On the other side despite the fast fielding of the locals, they could not apprehend the hitting bee that the Monarchs were featuring. So Currie won his game, 6 to 3.

Score by innings:

Monarchs	4	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	—6
A. B. C.	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	—3
