

GRAHAM TO PITCH FOR ALL-STARS,

The Chicago American Giants Will Face Its-Rival Today.

The Chicago American Giants and the Kansas City All Stars will meet in a double header this afternoon at Association Park, unless it is raining at the time of the start of the first game at 1:30 o'clock. Cold weather will not postpone the affair. Today's game will be the final of the 6-game series. The All Stars have won two of the three contests already played. The Giants have not dropped a 6 game series in three years and feel confident of annexing both combats this afternoon.

John Donaldson will work the first game for the Giants. Whitworth or Davey Brown will hurl the afterpiece. "Lefty" Graham will oppose Donaldson in the opening fray. Art Rasmussen, star heaver of the Sioux City club of the Western League or "Lefty" Meeker will be on the rubber for the All Stars

In the second combat. Mack Wheat will catch. Pat Boyle and Wheeler will umpire.
