

BASEBALL'S FINALE HERE SUNDAY.

All-Stars and Giants Meet in Last Game at Association Park.

Baseball fans will be treated to their last game of the season Sunday afternoon when the Chicago American Giants meet "Cot" Tierney's All Stars at Association Park in the third game of the series. The All Stars have been victorious in the contests played and feel confident of making a clean sweep of the series. "Rube" Foster, the Giants' leader, has bolstered up some of the weak spots in his team with players on their way to the south, where they play during the winter months.

John Donaldson has fully recovered from the "Charley horse" attack of last week and will pitch for the Giants. Dixon will wear the shinguards. "Lefty" Mapel of the St. Louis Browns, who let the Giants down with four hits last Saturday, or Musser, a Western Leaguer, will work for the All Stars, with Mack Wheat doing the receiving. The game will be called at 3 o'clock.
