

BIG BALL GAMES FOR NEXT WEEK

Aberfoyle Coming Monday and Cuban Stars On Wednesday.

On Monday evening promptly at 6 o'clock, the Aberfoyle team of Chester, leaders of the Delaware River Industrial League, will play Millville. Ad Swigler will pitch and Mark, the Chinese catcher, will work behind the bat.

This is an extraordinary attraction and a large attendance is necessary. Millville will present its usual lineup with "Rube" Chambers doing the pitching.

On Wednesday evening the Cuban Stars of Havana, Cuba, will be the attraction. This is another big game for which a large guarantee must be paid.

Ogden will work against the Stars.

Today Earl Mack's Merchant Ship team of Bristol with "Mule" Watson pitching is playing in Millville. The Merchant Ship club is receiving the biggest guarantee of any team thus far booked. Only the Bacharach Giants and Millville are South Jersey clubs able to pay the money Mack wants. They have not played elsewhere in South Jersey.

"Curley" Ogden will work against them today.
