

HILLDALE LOSES ONE

Could Not Locate Redding and Bacharach Giants Win Easily

"Cannon Ball" Redding, pitching for the Bacharach Giants, of Atlantic City, had the Indian sign on the heavy hitters of Hilldale yesterday afternoon, when the midweek season was opened on the Darby grounds, and gave them a trouncing, the score being 9 to 2. Hilldale failed to register a hit until the fifth frame, when Reese pushed a single through short. All told the home boys garnered but five hits, two of which were of the scratch order. They scored their two tallies in the final frame on a base on balls to Roberts, Downs' triple to left and a sacrifice fly by Reese to deep centre, on which Downs wound up the scoring for Hilldale.

BACHARACH GIANTS.

HILLDALE.

BACHARACH GIANTS.					HILLDALE.
	r.	h.	a.	e.		r.	h.	a.	e.
Pugh, lf....	0	1	1	0	0	Poles, cf...	0	0	2	0
Earle, cf...	1	1	2	0	0	Roberts, 2b.	1	1	0	4
Handy, 2b..	2	2	0	3	0	Downs, 3b..	1	1	2	2
Lloyd, ss....	1	1	4	2	0	Johnson, rf.	0	0	1	0
Taylor, lb..	2	2	1	0	0	Reese, lf...	0	1	1	0
Gatewood, c.	0	1	7	0	1	Allen, lb..	0	0	1	3
Hutch'on, 3b	2	4	1	4	0	Luindy, ss...	0	1	2	1
Forbes, rf...	0	0	1	0	0	Yank, c....	0	1	9	0
Redding, p..	0	0	0	1	0	Williams, p.	0	0	0	1
						Cochrall, p.	0	0	1	3

Totals....	9	12	27	10	1	Totals..	2	5	27	17	1
Bacharach Giants.....	3	1	4	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0
Hilldale	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	2

Home runs—Hutchinson, 2. Three-base hits—Taylor, 2; Gatewood, Handy, Downs. Struck out—Downs, Lundy, Johnson, 4; Pugh, Gatewood, Forbes, 2; Redding, 2. Hit by pitched ball—Handy, Forbes. Base on balls—By Redding, 2; by Williams, 1; by Cochran, 1. Stolen bases—Pugh, Taylor, 2. Sacrifice hits—Lloyd, Redding, Reese. Umpires—Yarnall and Phelan. Attendance—2000.

Philadelphia Inquirer, Philadelphia, PA

Friday Morning, June 6, 1919, Page 14, Column 2