

Cuban Stars to Meet Tesreau's Bears To-day

The Cuban Stars, champions of Havana, will make their fifth appearance of the season at Dyckman Oval this afternoon when they will meet Jeff Tesreau's Bears in a double-header. Big Jeff will officiate on the mound for his team in the second contest. Fullerton, the young sensation, will probably pitch the other game for the Bears.

These two teams have met eight times this summer, the Bears gaining the victory in five of the encounters and the Stars being successful in three. According to reports received by Tesreau last night the Cubans have been greatly strengthened since their last visit to this city.
