

Sac City continues to prepare for the home-coming event which will be held September 18th. A big parade is featured and $100 is offered for the best float, but business houses are asked not to enter. The entertainment features will include aeroplane flights, motorcycle races, military manuevers, a ball game between the Chicago Giants and an All-Star county team, a troop of dogs and ponies, a tug-of-war, band concerts and a big pavement dance. The address will be given by Robert Wallace of Council Bluffs.
