

Union Giants to Play Here Again

The Chicago Union Giants, crack negro club, has been scheduled for two engagements with Armours, local semi-pro's at Rourke park. The Giant's appeared here recently against the Armours and came out second best in the argument.

Now Manager Deleware of the Armours has scheduled the Giants to Rourke park July 26 and 27 and again August 23 and 24.

The Armours have been booked a full schedule from now to September. Today the local semi-pro's play at Herman. Next Saturday and Sunday they play the Union Giants here. August 3 they journey to Nebraska City and Augst 10 to Fremont.

The Armours also have entered the baseball tournament to be held at Shenandoah, Ia. August 12, 13 and 14. On August 17 the locals will be at Greenwood, Ia. Then they return home for the Union Giants August 23 and 24 and go to Grand Island August 31.

During all of September Armours will play at Rourke park. Among the teams they expect to schedule during this month is Joe Stecher's Dodge, Neb., nine. Joe is manager and first basemen on the team and Tony Stecher play second base.

Omaha World Herald, Omaha, NE

Sunday, July 20, 1919, Section N, Page 13, Column 4