

Armours to Play Power Team Today

The Armours and Nebraska Power Co. will clash today at Rourke Park at 3:30 p. m.

This will be the first game of the season in Omaha for the Power company team and the first amateur appearance of the Armours. The packer nine played two games with the Rourkes early this spring, losing both by close scores.

Next Sunday the Armours are scheduled to play at Shenandoah, Ia., and on May 25, they play at Griswold, Ia. May 31 and June 1 the Armours will play the Tennessee Rats here. Negotiations for games with the All Nations, the Leland Giants and the Union Giants now are under way, according to Manager Delaware of the Armours.
