

LOCALS BEAT GIANTS.

Chicago Colored Team Drops Two Games to Team Here.

The Chicago Union Giants, one of the fastest colored nines in the country, dropped two games, Saturday and Sunday, to the Marshalltown Independents. Saturday's game was won by the local team, 4 to 2, and Sunday's contest terminated with the same club winning, 3 to 1. Inclement weather resulted in small crowds at both games.

The local team proved the best aggregation placed in the field since the days of league ball, with "Zig" Hasbrook, of the Des Moines Western League club, and "Buzz" Murphy, of the Washington Americans, appearing in the lineup. Hasbrook pitched Saturday's game, allowing the visitors but two hits, and defended the short field in Sunday's contest. Murphy was at his old position in center field in both games.

Ives, the Wellsburg star, was on the mound Sunday, with Hendershot receiving. The Wellsburg wizard was in fine fettle and should have scored a shut-out but for one wobble in the defense. The heavy hitting colored aggregation failed to hit consistently.

There was one shining light on the visiting team, however, who, but for the shade of his complexion, would be receiving his meal ticket from M. McGraw, C. Griffith or some other big league pilot. This is McNair, center fielder.

The home boys cinched Sunday's game in the first stanza, scoring two runs on a single and two doubles. After Lipps had fouled out to first, Goodwin singled and scored on Hasbrook's double. Murphy followed with another extra base hit, scoring Hasbrook. Murphy went to third on a passed ball, but Willigrod grounded out to Burch and Ives was thrown out at first.

The Giant's batting combination, McNair and Coleman, put Ives in the hole in the fourth and sixth, but in the first instance a fine peg from left to the plate, nipping McNair, completed a double, Rhode and Hendershot, and the fullside of the sixth came with two down, and Ives disposed of "Happy" Bingham on strikes.

The Giant's one tally came in the eighth, when hits were bunched and an error permitted a runner to cross the pan. After one man had been retired McNair hit safely. Coleman fanned but Bingham and Turner followed with singles, filling the bases. Redd hit to Goodwin, who fumbled the ball, McNair scoring. Horney ended the round by skying to Murphy.

The Independents did not threaten after the first round until the eighth, when a triple by Murphy sent Hasbrook home, after the latter had singled and stolen second.

Saturday's Game.

Saturday Marshalltown beat the colored giants in a very close game. Has-brook was on the mound for the locals and only allowed the giants two hits.
The game was marred by a decision in the fourth inning which nearly broke
