

ROYALS IN RETURN GAMES.

To-morrow has been designated as Salvation Army day at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills "L," where the Royal Giants and the Bushwicks will meet in a return double header. Three weeks ago these teams played before a record gathering, the Bushwicks winning the first game in eleven innings and the second resulting in a tie. The Royals will have a new pitcher, Dilworth of Texas, in the lineup.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, May 24, 1919, Page 17, Column 7