

LINCOLNS WELL PROTECTED.

With Williams and Treadwell pitching in great form the Lincoln Giants will be well protected in the box when they take on two hard teams at Olympic Field in Harlem to-morrow afternoon. The opponents of the Giants will be the Newburg club, one of the strongest in the Hudson River Valley, and the Federal Shipyard outfit. The Newburghs are likely to make the Lincolns travel at their best gait, as they have beaten the best in the semi-professional line in the State.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, August 9, 1919, Page 15, Column 3