

CUBANS IN BROOKLYN.

Preparatory to leaving for Havana to get into the National League race there, the Cuban stars will play the fourth of a series of double headers with the Bushwicks to-morrow afternoon. The games will be played at Dexter Park, near the Cypress Hills elevated station. Suarez and Fernandez, the Cuban pitchers, will make another effort to sweep the bill. The Bushwicks hold a slight edge in their series.

The Sun, New York, NY

Saturday, September 27, 1919, Page 15, Column 8