

EMPEY'S TEAM BREAKS EVEN.

"Treat 'Em Roughts" Lose to Standard Shipyards; Beat Newark Stars

Twenty-five hundred fans saw Arthur Empey's "Treat 'Em Roughts" break even in a doubleheader at Dyckman Oval yesterday. In the first game the home team was beaten by the Standard Shipyard nine, 4 to 1, but in the feature the "Treat 'Em Roughts" downed the Newark Stars, 7 to 5. Jimmy Clinton, former star hurler of the Jersey City Club, made his debut for the victors in the game with the Stars. Brun double-scored three of the four runs the Roughts obtained in the fifth inning of the feature contest. The scores:
