

MILLVILLE'S LINE-UP FOR TONIGHT'S GAME

Locals Will Present Stiff Opposition To the Bacharach Giants.

Everything is set for the Millville-Bacharach Giants baseball game at management has reinforced the first twilight game of the season and other contests will depend upon its success.

In order to put up a stiff argument with the team that claims the colored championship of the world, the local team has considerably reinforced the Millville team and barring disappointments which are always possible, the following team will represent Millville this evening:

Catchers, Mark or Heffner.

Pitchers, Steinader and Steele.

First base, Lennox

Second base, Yost

Third base, Helfrich

Short stop, Ayau

Left field, Nelson

Centre field, Robinson

Right field, Seiferman

Extra men who will be available and who are counted upon as being good ball players able to go in at any time are catchers, Steelman and McFarland; general utility, Hogan.

George Adams and Joseph Riley will be the umpires.

Bridgeton Evening News, Bridgeton, NJ

Thursday, July 17, 1919, Page 5, Column 1