

KLEIN TEAM MEETS BACHARACH GIANTS ON ISLAND TODAY

The Bacharach Giants, of Atlantic City, reputed to be the best colored ball team in the country, will engage the crack Klein Chocolate Company nine this afternoon, at 3.45 o'clock, on Island Park. Manager Breckenridge said last night that his usual line-up will be intact for this game.

Walter Harned will do the hurling for the Klein team, but it is not yet known just who will twirl for the Bacharachs.

Tomorrow afternoon the Bacharachs and Klein will meet again, this time on the new huge athletic field at Elizabethtown, the home town of the Candy Makers. On Wednesday evening Klein will tackle a picked team from the McClain League, of Lancaster.

Thursday will find the Klein team at York playing the American Chain nine, and on Friday the Confectioners will be pitted against Ephrata, on the Hershey diamond. Saturday the team meets Williamsport, at that place, and on Sunday Klein goes to Reading.

The admission to the game on the Island this afternoon will be thirty-five cents for adults and fifteen cents for children.
