

TO TRY BACHARACHS AGAIN FRIDAY EVENING

Atlantic City Crowd May Yet Find Millville a Stumbling Block.

The Bacharach Giants will play in Millville Friday evening at 6 o'clock and on Saturday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock the strong McAndrews and Forbes team will be the attraction.

To date the Bacharach Giants have won five out of six games with Millville, three of them being by very close margins and the locals hope to break the streak tomorrow.

"Rube" Chambers one of the few star south paws in Philadelphia, will pitch for Millville, although efforts are being made to secure Scott Perry who is reported to have deserted the Athletics to do the hurling. If he can be secured, the local management will get him.

Millville will have DeMaris and Cashman for first base. DeMaris will be used there if he is in shape and Cashman or Green will be played in the outfield.

The Hell Fighters team scheduled to play in Millville last evening and tonight will not appear.

Bridgeton Evening News, Bridgeton, NJ

August 14, 1919, Page 5, Column 3