

BACHARAGHS TOO MUCH FOR LOCALS

Won Saturday's Game After Tough Battle.

LOCALS' RALLY IN 7TH
PRODUCED ONE RUN

Giants Got Runs in Early Innings
—Local Clubbers Could Not Hit Roberts.

Millville is all through with the Bacharach Giants. They are too much for the local club and the latter are willing to allow some other combination try their luck. Saturday's conflict was an exceptionally well played exhibition. There was not the semblance of an error by either team. The only thing wrong about the game was the score. The Giants had 3 and Millville 1.

Millville, exerted every effort to cop the game in the seventh, when Roberts became wild, but it amounted to only one run.

"Curley" Ogden pitched very good ball for the home club. Shiveley was rather bothersome, registering two doubles and a single, but he handled their heaviest swatters, Poles, Handy, Lloyd and Taylor, in a very encouraging manner. Only in the second and third innings did the Giants find him with any worthwhile regularity.

Millville clubbers hit in tough luck. For five innings none of them made anything that in any way resembled a hit. They did some batting as can be noticed by the eight chances of the Giant outfield, but they couldn't get them safe and then this big fellow Lloyd, who loiters between second and third, was a stumbling block that really hurt. As a matter of fact this same Lloyd has been a nuisance during the entire series. About the time a fellow who has honest intentions gets a real lively knock started toward second base and the fans have visions of base hits and a batting rally, Lloyd races over, gobbles the horsehide and hurls it to Taylor. Lloyd's shortstopping has queered numercus Millville endeavors. He's a great ball player.

The Bacharach Giants are too speedy much too fast, but enough and they }

{ In the second inning Taylor, first } man up, was hit by a pitched ball. } Hutchinson sacrificed him. Brown fled } out to Nelson. Gatewood singled to } centre, scoring Taylor. Roberts sing- }

{ In the third Shiveley led off with a } two-bagger. Handy singled, Lloyd sac- } rificed. Taylor singled scoring both. }

{ In the seventh with two down. }
Young singled for Millville. Hopkins } walked, Ogden singled to left centre, }

the bases were loaded. Roberts was } wild and the chances for Millville } looked good. Peterson forced Robin- }
on. Hutchinson to Handy and the op- } portunity was gone. The score: }

Baseball Briefs

Vineland defeated the Engineering Department team of the Dupont League of Pennsgrove by the score of 7 to 1 Saturday. The other Dupont Club played in Wilmington Saturday.

It may be said that Ayau, Yim, Yost and Cashman, ball players abducted from Millville by offers of more cash, were the first four hitters and Cashman featured with three nice swats. "Ray" Steinader pitched good baseball holding the dye workers to two hits. Art DeMaris is not in form yet. The fact that he has not been playing any baseball for nearly two months may account for his showing in the two games against the Bacharach Giants. "Merry" broke in against a regular ball club and that was a considerable disadvantage to him.

Millville plays three games this week, Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday and all the attractions are good. Big crowds are needed to keep the ball club we have here.

Millville's best home talent has been sadly missing in the so-called county championship series, but the games seem to be close at that. Millville's best would probably make the series one sided. Seiferman, Young, Robinson Walker, Hogan, DeMaris, Adams and Steele would have tripled the strength of the Millville combination that tackled Morgan's Liberty crowd Saturday.

That was a classy game on the M. S. A. A. field Saturday afternoon even though Millville did lose. There wasn't an error in the game and numerous nice plays were made, for instance when Millville crimped an attempted double steal by getting both men.

Millville found Roberts in rare form Saturday and when he's good he's very good. Wickware, Roberts and Redding are pitchers against whom the hitters of any independent clubs will have trouble.

"Linnie" Frist who caught for Millville Friday evening got two hits for Morrisville Saturday.

The Marshall E. Smith team which was soundly trounced by Millville some weeks ago, was too fast for Elmer Saturday winning 6 to 4.
