

BACHARACHS STILL KEEP WINNING

Jinx Sticks Close To Millville in the Series.

CHAMBERS HAD
ONE BAD INNING

And Atlantic City Crowd Got Three Runs—Frost Hit Three-Bagger With Two On.

Too bad, but Tom Jackson's Bacharach Giants are still winning from Millville's pets. Last evening they made it six out of seven by carrying home the big end of a 9 to 2 score.

Millville put a strong ball club on the field and played good baseball but the dusky wizards got to Chambers in the second inning and added another in the fourth.

"Linnie" Frost, of Trenton, who caught a nice game for the home club poled out a three-base whack in the third that scored a brace of tallies but that was the best effort of the home club. Frost looked mighty good to local fandom.

Greene, cleanup hitter on Straw-bridge & Clothier team, was in right field for the home crowd.

Millville hit Wickware but hit right at some one all the time. The breaks have surely been against Millville in the Bacharach games.

In the ninth Helfrich led off with a single but Lloyd raced over to second, scooped Seiferman's roller and made a double play that ended the game.

The same teams play this afternoon. The score:
