

FLORENCE TO PLAY BACHARACH GIANTS

FLORENCE, Oct. 17.—The R. D. Wood Club of Florence will cross bats with the strong Bacharach Giants of Atlantic City tomorrow afternoon. This game will positively be the last played on the Florence grounds this season, and in order to give the fans of this vicinity a good game the management was compelled to put up a large guarantee to secure a return game with this team.

The Bacharach Giants, since playing the last time at Florence, have played some of the best teams in the American and National Leagues. Last Tuesday they played the New York Giants a 7 to 5 game, and it was only through an error of the pitcher that they were defeated.

The R. D. Wood club has been considerably strengthened by the addition of Byrnes, the star infielder of the Athletics, and Bancroft, of the Phillies. Either Sweeney or Everham will pitch.

Trenton Evening Times, Trenton, NJ

Friday, October 17, 1919, Page 27, Column 2