

NEGRO TEAM BEATS MAYS.

Carl Mays of the New York Yankees, pitching for the Treat 'Em Roughs in Manhattan, was beaten in the fourteenth inning by the Bacharach Giants, a colored team. Dick Redding, the colored Walter Johnson, engaged Mays in a thrilling pitching duel. The dusky players found Carl's delivery for four runs in the fourteenth. Rube Benton of the Giants shut the colored men out with three hits in the second game.

Lexington Herald, Lexington, KY

Saturday, October 4, 1919, Page 4, Column 4