

A NEGRO TEAM TO PLAY HERE.

Tierney's All-Stars Will Meet Chicago Giants Saturday and Sunday.

The Chicago American Giants, headed by "Rube" Foster, will play an all star club Saturday and Sunday at Association Park. Foster's club is ranked among the leading negro aggregations in the country. Williams and Whitworth, the team's star pitchers, are considered the equal of many of the best major league hurlers.

"Cot" Tierney who is handling the all star club will have several minor and major league players in his lineup. John Donaldson who has been pitching for the Detroit Stars this season will be here to hurl one of these games.

"Lofly" Maples of the St. Louis Browns will pitch for the All Stars in Saturday's game and possibly Roy Sanders will work the Sunday contest.

A double header will be played Sunday with the Peet Brothers, champions of the Mercantile League, and the Grand Billard furnishing the curtain raiser.
