

HILLDALES PLAY TO-DAY.

Pennsylvania's Star Semi-Pro Nine Meets Empey's Team.

Following his plan to give local semi-professional fans good attractions, Guy Empey, owner of the Treat 'Em Poughs, last night engaged the fast Hilldale nine of Darby, Pa., to tackle the locals in a double header this afternoon at Dyckman Oval, near the Dyckman street subway station. The Hilldale nine last week twice beat Rube Foster's American Giants of Chicago, who in turn twice humbled Empey's boys last Sunday.

Long Tom Williams and Cockrell, who beat the American Giants, will pitch for the visitors and opposed to him will be Pol Perritt and Jeff Tesreau, former Giants, with Jimmy Clinton as reserve hurler. The Treat 'Em Roughs will play the Morse Dry Dock team in Brooklyn to-morrow.

The Sun, New York, NY

Sunday, August 31, 1919, Page 5, Column 5