

GIANTS WALK AWAY WITH 183RD BACON

Foster's American Giants of Chicago piled up twelve score against the Colored Infantry brigade nine yesterday in Kishwaukee Park, registering at will after the second inning.

General In Box.

Brigadier General M. H. Barnum, commander of the brigade, was greeted with a roar when he stepped into the diamond from a grand stand box, and tossed the first ball in the game to Rube Foster who grinned behind home plate. It was the only chance soldier fans had to cheer during the afternoon.

Ingram opened the game for the brigade and held the Giant's in their first turn at bat, but exploded in the second inning when with three men on bases, he issued a pass. The score was a signal for bunching hits and the crack colored team of the world slammed the Camp Grant pitcher to all corners of the lot, marking up six scores during the inning. The brigade registered one run, the only tally of the game, in the fourth, and Dicta Johnson was sent into the box for the army. He received fair support in the last four innings but the Camp Grant colored nine proved entirely out of its class against the baseball machine developed by the Giants. Duncan finished the game for Chicago.

A fair crowd witnessed the comedy contest and enjoyed the jazz music furnished by the 365th Infantry band. The score:

	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9
Brigade	0	0	0	1	0	0	0	0	0
Giants	0	6	1	2	0	3	0	0	x

Rockford Morning Star, Rockford, IL

Sunday, May 12, 1918, Page 25, Column 6