

Hilldale Easy Winner

The International Stars, composed of many big league and minor league players, were defeated by Hilldale yesterday.

This is the third of a series of three games between these teams, and while it looked for six innings as if the Stars were to be the victors, Hilldale in its half of the sixth and seventh innings put the game on ice with five singles and a triple.

Hans Lobert covered third for the visitors and Joe Holden, late of the New York Americans, was in right field.
